

Georgia State Honey Show

Decisions of the Judges are FINAL!

The Georgia Beekeepers Association holds the annual Georgia State Honey Show at our fall meeting. Our Honey Show is like none other in the country. Robert Brewer, our very own Certified Welsh Honey Judge oversees the show every year.

The winners of the show not only will be able to go away with ribbons, and the pride of having the best Honey in Georgia. We also award $700 in prize money!

If you have any questions regarding the Georgia State Honey Show please contact Robert Brewer.

Classes:

Extracted Light Honey

Extracted Amber Honey

Extracted Dark Honey

Chunk Honey

Creamed Honey

Cut or Section Comb Honey

Black Jar (The sole criteria for this class is taste)

Candles, Molded or Dipped (All candles will be lit)

Bees Wax Blocks (1+ lbs)

Mead, Dry and Sweet (1 bottle)

Persons may enter in any or all classes, but only one entry per class. All honey and beeswax must have been produced by the submitter within 12 months, (Except for the mead class, any age is acceptable).

Submit extracted honey in 3 matching standard 1lb. jars, plastic or glass. With NO tamper proof lids/seals!

Chunk honey may be in one pound chunk honey jars or pint jars.

Creamed honey must be submitted in 3 clear wide mouth containers.

Bring a sufficient amount of honey, (3-4 oz.) for the Black Jar entries. We will supply the black jars.

All beeswax entries must be pure beeswax. All candles will be lit!

DO NOT label products in any way. Stickers and numbers will be assigned by the registration Steward.

All entries must be submitted by 12:00 noon, at the Friday meeting.

Awards will be given at the end Georgia Beekeepers Business Meeting, generally Saturday afternoon.